

Language : English

Date, Time and Venue:

Wednesday, April. 10, 17:00-20:00 @ S4-202, Ookayama

PROGRAM

Part 1: introducing reframing (Lecture)

What is it? Why is it relevant to tackle grand societal challenges?

Part 2: seeing where I'm standing (Dialogue in pairs)

Where are we now? What are the cognitive and bodily relationships linking us to this place?

Part 3: creating a leadership manifesto with the help of visualization and music generation tools (Workshop)

What do we see changing? Where do we want to go next?

Sign Up →

Facilitator: Riccardo Masiero

Riccardo is a third year PhD Student at the House of Innovation of the Stockholm School of Economics (Sweden), studying innovation and leadership processes in international organizations. He holds a Master of Science in Space Engineering from Politecnico di Milano. During his Masters, he visited Tokyo Tech as an exchange student where he attended the Global Leadership Practice course. From that transformative experience, Riccardo decided to focus his research on reframing and sensemaking in technological firms, understanding how leading organizations reframe complex problems.